

Parents Organizing for Welfare and Economic Rights

701 Franklin Street SE
Olympia, Washington 98501

360-352-9716

toll-free 866-343-9716

welfarerights@riseup.net

www.oly-wa.us/power

<http://www.myspace.com/parentsorganizing>

POWER writes grants to help fund activities that benefit low-income parents and allies, such as paying for child care during meetings, paying for the toll-free phone, and keeping the office running. It helps us be successful grantwriters to know a bit more about our members. If you are comfortable doing so, let us know a bit more about you.

Race/Ethnicity

- African American
- Asian American
- Native American
- Latina/o
- Caucasian
- Pacific Islander
- Multi-Racial
- Other:

Age

- Under 18
- 18-25
- 26-35
- 36-45
- 46-55
- Over 56

Geographic Location

- Western Washington
- Eastern Washington
- Urban
- Suburban
- Rural
- Remote
- Other:

Gender/Sexuality

- Female
- Male
- Gay
- Lesbian
- Bisexual
- Trans
- Queer
- Intersex

No children Single Parent Family 2- Parent Family Other type of family _____

Do you currently receive TANF?

- Yes
- No

Do you receive any other state or federal cash grant, such as GA-U, GA-X, SSI, Social Security, unemployment benefits or L&I disability benefits?

- Yes
- No

Do you receive food stamps, child care assistance, housing assistance or medical assistance?

- Yes
- No

Did you live in poverty as a child? With a single parent?

- Yes Yes
- No No

Are you currently employed in a job that provides a living wage and medical benefits?

- Yes
- No

Are you currently attending college or vocational training to earn a 2 or 4-year degree?

- Yes
- No

Do you want to attend college or vocational training?

- Yes
- No

Are you receiving the support you need to meet your education or career goals?

- Yes
- No